POPULAR TOURIST ATTRACTIONS

No trip to Sydney would be complete without visiting some of our most famous landmarks. Circular Quay is the main hub that connects the Sydney Opera House and the Sydney Harbour Bridge; located just near The Rocks, one of Sydney's most historical suburbs, Circular Quay can be accessed via bus, train or ferry.

Australia is one of the first countries around the world to welcome the New Year, and New Year's Eve celebrations in Sydney are broadcast worldwide, due to our spectacular fireworks display. At 9pm on NYE and 12am midnight, an amazing array of pyrotechnics light up the Sydney sky, from various locations across the city, including Sydney Harbour Bridge, Darling Harbour and city skyscraper rooftops.

Sydney is a vibrant, multicultural city and plays host to many cultural celebrations throughout the year, from the month-long Lunar New Year festival held across China Town to the early-Winter Vivid Sydney, a month long celebration of light, music and ideas. Watch Sydney come alive, with light and art installations, a series of talks and interviews with key inspirational and independent thinkers, and some incredible once-in-a-lifetime experiences (like a mass silent disco in a public park, rave parties held in secret inner city locations, and grand-scale light projection onto famous Sydney landmarks, including the Sydney Opera House).

Sydney's famous Bondi Beach is just one of our seaside attractions; experience the world of Tamarama, Bronte and Clovelly in Sydney's east and the surf breaks of Maroubra and southern Sydney's Cronulla. If you're looking for a change of scenery, Sydney is a short distance away from some spectacular getaway destinations; from the Blue Mountains to the wine region of the Hunter Valley and the quiet seaside vistas of the South Coast.
